Maintaining a film school's financial stability can be challenging due to the costs associated with equipment, facilities, faculty and keeping up with advancements in film technologies. In addition, limited access to film equipment, studio facilities, props and labs can be a significant frustration for students.

Film School Labs VR "virtualizes" costly resources such as production facilities, sound stages, sets, remote or historic locations, event spaces, classrooms, new technologies, equipment and even props to allow for learning experiences that would otherwise be impossible in the real world!
